SPARK FEUD

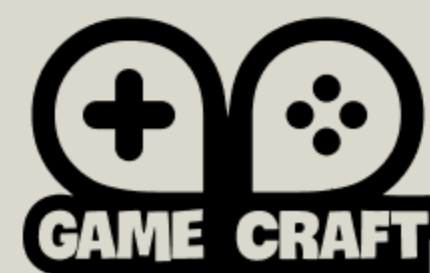

Welcome to 'Spark Feud.' !

Here's an overview of the game rules. Please make sure to read and understand them. If you're unsure, you can check YouTube by searching for 'Family Feud' to watch a segment of a video. This will ensure your understanding, making it easier during our meeting

Firstly, we will divide you into two groups and provide a dedicated Messenger group for each team. This will allow you to discuss your answers within the given time

One member from each group will compete head-to-head. The host will ask questions, and the first participant to raise their hand (in Google Meet) will have the opportunity to answer. The group with the answer that scores the highest takes control of the round.

The controlling group will take turns guessing answers to the survey question, one by one. Please respond by typing or using your voice. Each correct answer earns points, and the objective is to accumulate the most points by guessing the most popular answers

If a group provides three incorrect answers, the opposing group gets a chance to steal the points by guessing one of the remaining answers. If the stealing group's guess is correct, they claim the points. If not, the controlling group retains the points.

The game typically consists of several rounds, each featuring a different survey question. The group with the highest points at the end of a round accumulates those points."
